Preparation for war in Byelorussia, Poland, and USSR

From private letters, which are received by our nationals here, I learned that in Byelorussia, Poland and in USSR the Soviets make psychological preparation for war, that is, they do propaganda that the war is inevitable and will be pretty soon against the U.S.

Here are some quotations from some letters:

From Dubiaha family, at present living in Byelorussia, Vialejka province, the write to John Dubiaha living in South River, N.J. Letter dated May 1958 "Uncle Fiodar (allegoric name for USSR) is said here doing preparation for coming to see you, etc. "

My brother writes on 3/30/58 " One thing I don't want is the war! and I would like to know if you think that way?"

My father writes on same date: "Live wisely because when we come to see you, you will be in trouble".

Mr. Briznik Mikołaj from Gdansk, Orunia 61, Poland writes to John Dubiaha, "They talk here that in short time will go to you and take off your dollars and cars, and I think it will be so, as I see the things (politics) are going on".
